THE COURTS.

THE GUNSER MURDER.

The examination of Jacob Eisele, charged with the murder of John Gunser at East Williamsburg on the night of May 13, was continued before Justice Marshall, at Newtown yesterday. District Attorney Dowling called as the first witness, George Michel, who is awaiting the action of the Grand Jury on the same charge. He testified that after his release from the jail and while on a visit there he was talked with Eisele, and told him to tell the truth and he would come out right. He saw him on the morning after the murder, and had talked with him since about the matter. He told Eisele that his wife was shot in the kitchen, and that she slept in the bedroom with Eisele and his wife. He also told him that the butcher, Roth, lent him (Eisele) a knife, and that he had it when he would not give it back to him. Mrs. Gunser, the wife of the murdered man, testified that since the murder of her husband she had seen Eisele on several occasions prowling around her house. Three weeks after the murder, about a week ago, he told her not to be afraid; he would not hurt her. On one occasion she found him sitting in her kitchen. She heard Eisele say while setting in the yard that he had killed his wife. When the heavy pillars were taken down after the murder, Eisele watched the woman who was washing through the fence. The witness thought he looked like the man who killed his husband. "At the last, when he was shot, he said to me, 'I am a dog,' and, 'on the road I said to him, 'Do not think it is hard that my husband was killed.' Eisele replied, 'I did not kill him,' and immediately got out of his wagon. The witness said that Eisele has taken knives from my kitchen to cut persons in the cabin." The examination was then adjourned until Thursday next. Thomsen and Backer being arrested and locked up as witnesses.

COMPLICATIONS OF A FORECLOSURE.

The foreclosure suit of James B. Ward against Joseph G. Browning presents some curious complications. Browning in 1858 conveyed the mortgaged premises to his sister, John J. O'Brien, his creditor to the extent of $2,250, 30, began a suit soon after, on behalf of himself and all other creditors similarly situated, to set aside the conveyance as fraudulent. In March he succeeded, and in April the sister conveyed his estate to a receiver for the benefit of those claimants. The receiver, H. P. Brown, took the title, and, on Aug. 26, with wife and passenger to Jas. E. Ward & Co., had strong northeast winds to Cape Hatteras from thence light southwest.
